Re: Open Government Bills before the Senate Regulated Industries Committee

The First Amendment Foundation writes to express our objection to bills before the Senate Regulated Industries committee on Tuesday, February 16, 2021.

FAF opposes Senate Bills 7022, 7024, 7026, 7028, 7030, 7032, and 7034. These bills are among more than 20 trade secret exemption bills up for review this session. Now is an opportune time to let the myriad of trade secret exemptions sunset and enact a uniform definition and process to exclude trade secret. The misapplication and overuse of trade secret exemptions allows information about government contractors and private entities regulated by the state to be withheld.

With dozens of trade secret exemptions subject to the Open Government Sunset Review this session, FAF is calling on the legislature to pass legislation like last year's HB 799 and HB 801, sponsored by Representative Tommy Gregory, which would have repealed most trade secret exemptions and provided a uniform trade secret exemption and process to remove trade secrets from public records.

Please let us know whether we can provide any further information.

With best regards,

FIRST AMENDMENT FOUNDATION

Pamela C. Marsh
President
