

A TRIBUTE TO ROSEMARY O'HARA

A VIRTUAL EVENT
JUNE 24
7-8 PM

Rosemary O'Hara is one serious journalist – Tampa Tribune, Orlando Sentinel, Miami Herald, Sun-Sentinel, reporter, editor, editorial page leader. For four decades, Florida politicians, CEOs, and others knew not to tangle with Rosemary. But have you heard her laugh? It is a laugh that rings true with the love of life, the joy of collegiality, and an appreciation of a great story. She's written many of those stories. Come hear and tell some stories of your own when we celebrate Rosemary's world-class journalism, and hope to hear that terrific laugh.

- Tom Hudson, WLRN

I had the privilege of working with Rosemary for many years on various newsroom projects. In addition to enjoying our expansive conversations, I was consistently impressed with her persistence and knowledge of issues that were important to Sun Sentinel's readers and the community. Rosemary was incredibly thorough in her research, and articulated the results in beautifully-written columns which got the attention of public officials and others in her spotlight. On many occasions, Rosemary's work was a game-changer with immediate impact on her chosen subjects.
